JUTE FACTORY PLEDGES MORE TEXTILES

The workers of Factory III of the Juta state enterprise at Dvur Kralove nad Labem has pledged to increase production, without increasing personnel, in its hemp-spinning mill, its jute-spinning mill, its thread factory, its jute-weaving mill, and its flax-hackling mill in honor of the Ninth Communist Party Congress, 25-29 May.

Factory II has pledged that between 1 January and 29 May it will fulfill its plan 102 percent for the jute-spinning mill by producing 31,770 kilograms more thread, worth 294,460 crowns; 103 percent for the jute-weaving mill by producing 94,119 meters more, worth 1,505,904 crowns; 120 percent for the carpet factory by producing 6,000 square meters more, worth 522,000 crowns; and 105 percent for the stair-carpet factory by producing 2,700 meters more, worth 399,000 crowns. The total value of the surplus production will be 3,421,368 crowns.

The workers have pledged to produce 100 kilograms of thread from 100 kilograms of raw jute, which will mean a saving of 7,500 kilograms of raw material worth 150,000 crowns and will save another 170,000 crowns by lowering waste in the jute-weaving mill between 1 January and 29 May.
